

A RESOLUTION to congratulate James “Jamie” S. Wagner for outstanding work as an intern.

WHEREAS, throughout the course of each legislative session, there have emerged on occasion certain individuals who far exceed the basic requirements set forth for them to follow; and

WHEREAS, James “Jamie” S. Wagner has distinguished himself as one such individual through his work as a “bipartisan” legislative intern for members of both Democratic and Republican parties, including Representatives Phillip Pinion, Craig Fitzhugh, John White and Ronnie Davis, his efforts resulting in untold benefits for the members he served and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, a highly regarded student at the University of Tennessee at Martin, Mr. Wagner, a history major, has excelled both academically and in extracurricular activities. One of his most exciting extracurricular activities was driving “Miss Daisy” to the cleaners and hairdresser; and

WHEREAS, Jamie has served as President and Vice-President of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity, Resident Assistant for the Department of Housing and as a member of the History Club; and

WHEREAS, during the 1995 legislative session, Mr. Wagner exceeded all standards with regard to the qualities that are expected of a dedicated and competent legislative intern; he also learned the difference between the Andrew Jackson Building and the Rachel Jackson Building; and

WHEREAS, his favorite hangout is Hooters; if he cannot be found, he is there getting his head rubbed or strolling through Hickory Hollow mall on a beautiful Sunday; and

WHEREAS, eager to learn more about the intricacies and idiosyncrasies of Tennessee state government and to aid in his governmental studies, Mr. Wagner brought many skills to the State Capitol for the 1995 session of the Ninety-Ninth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Wagner has performed his many responsibilities with extraordinary ingenuity and decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NINETY-NINTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we hereby commend and congratulate James “Jamie” S. Wagner on his outstanding work as a legislative intern and wish him well in his future endeavors!
